Normalized component distributions

No pseudocounts; all component sums are positive. Units and axes are cohort-specific.

Points show all UC/CD participants. Controls are excluded. These are descriptive abundance distributions.